

About The Lucky Dogs

The Lucky Dogs are a rockin' dance band with a distinctive instrumental lineup featuring both an electric piano (Mark Luecke) and an organ (Steve Hansen), alongside bass (Jon Miller), drums (Ranger Kidwell-Ross) and lead guitar (Pete Mayer). Three members of the Lucky Dogs sing lead vocals and the band features harmonies. All are seasoned musicians.

Their core philosophy is to deliver enjoyable music that encourages both listening and dancing, resulting in universally enthusiastic audience receptions.

Main Themes:

- Musicality and Experience: The band comprises experienced musicians with a unique instrumentation.
- Audience Engagement and Enjoyment: Their core concept revolves around playing music that resonates with audiences, encouraging both listening and dancing, resulting in "universally enthusiastic" reactions.
- Eclectic Song Repertoire: The band boasts a diverse setlist covering various genres and eras, alongside original compositions.
- Fun and Lively Atmosphere: The members of The Lucky Dogs strive to provide a fun and engaging live performance experience.

Key Ideas and Facts:

1. Focus on Audience Enjoyment:

- The band's central concept is to play music people love to both listen and dance to. Audiences to date have been universally enthusiastic about the Lucky Dog members improvisational and energetic performance style.

2. Diverse and Extensive Song List:

- The Lucky Dogs set list showcases a wide range of popular songs from different genres and eras. Please check out the Lucky Dogs current song repertoire, provided as a separate PDF document.

Contact Information:

- Call or Text: 360-739-7323
- Email: info@TheLuckyDogsBand.com

